

In Loving Memory

Jordan D. Radish

Jordan Daniel Radish, 17, of Punta Gorda, Fla., passed from this world Sunday, Dec. 13, 2009.

He was born Feb. 1, 1992, the beloved son of Douglas and Patricia Radish.

Jordan was a searcher, who was happiest experiencing and learning as much as possible about the world, on both the spiritual and intellectual planes. A senior at Port Charlotte High School, Jordan was an international champion on the school's award-winning Model United Nations team. In the aftermath of Katrina, he gave back to those in need by painting houses, mowing lawns and being of service on several mission trips to Louisiana. In addition, he played with the Sarasota Orchestra Youth Philharmonic as principal oboe; he was privileged to perform with the group at Carnegie Hall in 2008. Jordan lived his life intensely, with great passion and conviction, and will be sorely missed.

Feb. 1, 1992 - Dec. 13, 2009

He is survived by his parents; siblings, Megan and Logan Radish; grandmothers, Roberta Suboter and Joan Buttery; aunts, Catherine Nielsen and Joyce Cross; uncles, Randy Radish, Gary Radish and Robert Buttery; and his cousins, Melanie Cross, Ryan Radish, Evan Radish and Jason Radish.

A celebration of life memorial will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 19, 2009 at St. James Episcopal Church, 1365 Viscaya Drive, Port Charlotte, Fla.
